Welcome to our June newsletter.

THE OFFICIAL UK PUZZLE CLUB

Wentworth Wooden Jigsaws

After many requests, I'm delighted that we will once again be offering a selection from Wentworth's extensive range. This will be on-going, with a few designs being offered on a quarterly basis. Our next issue will be September, when we'll have several seasonal jigsaws on offer. As before these will be dispatched directly from the Manufacturer, so excluding the jigsaws featured in this article please allow 28 days for them to get to you.

The Wentworth Wooden Jigsaw Company has been producing exquisitely crafted wooden jigsaw puzzles since it was founded in 1994 by Kevin Wentworth Preston.

Using computer controlled lasers and state of the art technology, Wentworth has become known for its quality and design, and supplies in excess of 150,000 puzzles a year in over 35 countries around the world.

Their skilled design team produces each cut most of which include the famous unique themed "whimsy" jigsaw pieces. Whimsies are specially shaped pieces cut into puzzles "on a whim" by Victorian hand cutters and Wentworth are one of the only companies still producing these unique puzzles. From nature to music, from stately homes to the beach, from gardens to vintage transport, they have a cut pattern to suit.

Wentworth Wooden Jigsaws offer exquisite high quality puzzles ranging from 30 to 1,500 pieces, whether you are a beginner or an experienced puzzler there is something for you.

They are also able to turn your own paintings, drawings and photographs into puzzles using over 500 themed cut patterns to make the perfect jigsaw for yourself or a unique gift.

Wentworth News - Operation Nowzad Dog

In late 2006 while fighting the Taliban in Helmand province, a small group of Royal Marines also found time to care for homeless animals that had been abandoned when locals fled the area. Among them were dogs that had been used for dog fighting, bitten in the face by a snake, and two litters of puppies. The Mayhew Animal Home, registered charity number 1077588, has been helping animals in Afghanistan since 2001. We (Wentworth) support Kabul's only animal shelter and also work with the Veterinary Science Faculty at Kabul University, providing training and animal welfare education for vet students. With the help of contacts there, the dogs were transported to the Kabul shelter when the Royal Marines were deployed to another location. One dog was quickly adopted by an American family. Two others, Nowzad and Tali, have been brought back to the UK through quarantine and now enjoy a new life with Sergeant P Farthing and his family.

Wentworth have been producing puzzles to help them raise money for the Mayhew Animal Home. We are featuring one of these and for each one sold a contribution will be paid to this excellent charity.

For anyone who wants to see how Wentworth puzzles are made, or who wants to pick up a bargain, there is an open day on Saturday 28th June. See Jigs corner for details. Or visit www.jigsaws.co.uk

NEWS & VIEWS

Best of the Bunch!

Just a reminder that the first letter published in this section qualifies the writer to a free 1000pc jigsaw of their choice – Just let us know which you would like.

May I first congratulate you on such excellent service, with all jigs received of high quality. Having read your newsletters, can I relate to the experience my wife and I had when framing our 'Christmas Surprise'? We thought it a good idea during Christmas to hang it on the wall at the bottom of our bed. However a couple of night's before Christmas in the early hours, there was a bump in the room! The wife woke with a start. Was there somebody in the room? Jumping out of bed I realised our 'Christmas Surprise' jig had fallen off the wall. Quick as a flash, telling the wife Father Christmas had arrived early...so it was only right I should give him a drink. Popping off down stairs, there were a few drinks put away. Whether Santa got on his sleigh I don't know but I cannot remember getting into bed. What a nice Christmas we had. So many thanks for our Christmas Jig. PS: As you may see in my order enclosed (long night) we are looking forward to the coming season.

Mr E Archer – Leamington Spa.

Are you going to frame this one? May is a little early to get into the festive spirit, but you're certainly not alone. Lots of members enjoy Christmas all year round. And this year we hope to bring you many such jigsaws. Should we be sending these out with large picture hooks? Hope you enjoy your free jigsaw and many thanks for the compliment.

I am hoping you may be able to help me find a particular puzzle. It is a Falcon deluxe 1000pc puzzle entitled 'You'll never know how much' by Mike Jupp and is one of the 'silent skies series'. It pictures a countryside scene showing an Aircrew in 'ghost', a memorial and a young person pointing at an airman sitting on the ground. I remember seeing it a few years ago and always wished I had bought it at the time.

Angela Overton – Luton.

Can anyone help Angela trace this? Mike are you reading this!! Do you have a copy? It has been out of print for sometime, but if anyone knows where Angela can locate this, do please get in touch with Jig.

Where?

Wentworth Wooden Jigsaws, Pinkney, Malmesbury, Wiltshire, SN16 0NX.

Did you indulge in our surprise Jigsaw? Amazing Africa. We had loads of letters and phone calls so lots of you enjoyed it. Got the piccies this time. Can't afford the reality, but I'm going to indulge in 'Best Beaches'. Sun hat on, bucket and spade and a nice cool drink out in the garden

We are hoping to despatch Wasgij no 15 mid June. Let us know if you want to be on the reserve list. There is also a 'Disney 2 x 500pc' Wasgij available. One picture is the box image and the other... the wasgij version!!

To see Wentworth's full range please request a brochure and we'll ask them to send it out to you.

The office will be closed from 26th June – 8th July as her ladyship traverses the ocean in search of an 'independence day adventure' The phones will still be manned but there will be no despatches until 9th July and of course, I'll be here to make sure you receive your July newsletter. The power that is will answer all your questions when she returns.

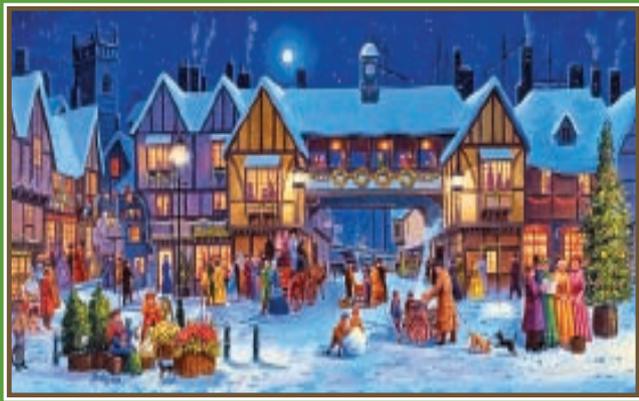

Have a great month!
