FJ19173 Wasgij Original 33 - Calm on the Canal - 1000pc £13.50

Wasgij Original 33: Calm on the Canal! Is the brilliantly funny 1,000 piece jigsaw puzzle that illustrates a lovely day on the canal. The image printed on the front of the box depicts a man cruising down the canal on his boat. When suddenly he hears something behind him, causing him and the people around to stop and stare! What could be happening to get this surprised reaction from everyone? Try to imagine you are the farmer on the bridge and what he can see. Created by artist James Alexander.

R14841 Best of British 22 - The Charity Shop 1000pc £13.00

Many of us enjoy a visit to a charity shop, hopeful of finding a valuable treasure, interesting pastime or just the right piece of clothing. You never quite know what you're going to discover... and you're going to find some surprises on this puzzle too! Keep a look out for a rare vase, interesting shoes, a hot meal, some battered golf clubs and a coat that you really should avoid. This scene was created by popular West Midlands artist Geoff Tristram and was inspired by his conversations with charity shop staff. Geoff is the creator of the Ravensburger 'Best of British', 'What if?' and 'Our Native Lands' series.

R16414 - Happy Days at Work 19, The Fisherman 500pc £9.00

It's a bright day on the beach at Filey, with local fisherman making the most of the good weather and repairing their nets and preparing for the next fishing trip. Further down the beach another boat is being brought up to shore, a kiddie is enjoying a donkey ride and families stroll along the sand. Despite this being a nostalgic scene, traditional fishing still happens in this picturesque seaside town. Artist Trevor Mitchell is Yorkshire born and bred, and is the Creator of Ravensburger's Happy Days at work, Gardening World, Railway Heritage and Cosy Cottages series.

G6281 - Snoozing on the Ted, 1000pc £14.00

Four little kittens found their way into the toy cabinet. There is so much in here to capture their interest, including a dolly, a robot, enticing kite strings or a bright spinning top. And which mouse to choose from - a still wooden one or a lively real one? But the biggest attraction of all is a big soft-bellied Ted, which is oh-so-comfy for snoozing on!

FJ19093 - Formula 1, The Start by JvH, 1000pc £13.50
 'The Start' is the title of this Jan van Haasteren 1000 piece jigsaw puzzle. It captures a busy race day, but unfortunately there have been a few incidents that have caused the race to stop. As always Jan's humour has been put into this image, so keep an eye out! Most of Jan's fans will immediately search for his trademark - the shark's fin - featured in every puzzle. But you can also look for Jan's other favourites - Saint Nicholas, The Hands, The Dentures and a self-portrait of Jan - that can be seen in nearly all of his puzzles.

Jig's Corner

Loads more new puzzles again this month but the Pot Luck proved popular in February so we're leaving them in to order again this month (and it also helps to clear my shelves a little!)
It's a good job that there are so many new puzzles to do, as the weather has been horrendous recently. I just hope none of you have been caught in any floods. So sad for people when that happens.
Hopefully Spring will be with us soon and we can all get outside a little more, but still with time to keep brains and fingers active with a good jigsaw!

Happy Puzzling! Jig

Readers' Letters

I sat for hours with the older newsletters and I have had an absolute ball. I never knew who the artist was on my beloved Ravensburger Christmas ones and there he was in one of the "Meet The Artist" columns, how thrilling for me....Articles on the history of the manufacturers was very knowledgeable and something I have wondered about ever since I began puzzling 12 years ago....I have decided to reread all my newsletters and cannot wait to find wee nuggets of joy...It is amazing how this has turned out to be such a worthwhile "Down memory lane" exercise. I hope you resurrect many of the superb articles from the past to bring pleasure to the current membership.

Helen Stevenson (Extracts from an email)

Thank you Helen, we're really pleased you've had so much pleasure from looking over the older Newsletters. We enjoyed printing them for you as it also gave us some ideas to bring back from 'retirement'. Watch out for them over the coming months. If anyone else would like copies of old Newsletters, they are 50p each (plus the usual postage, or free postage along with any ordered puzzles) but please note that they are printed on just plain paper rather than the glossy folded pages and we are missing 5, 6, 7 & 20.
