Jig's Corner

Several of you have asked over the years about the Puzzle Club founder, Margaret. One of our long standing customers has been in touch recently to let us know that Margaret died a few months ago. She was always interested in puzzles and remained on our Newsletter circulation list, even after moving onto a new career. A lovely lady.

On a happier note, it is great to see our warehouse shelves filling up again, although I'm always tempted to take the odd one or two home to fill up MY shelves...! I have found it a good time to do lots of guilt-free puzzling.

Here's hoping for some more regular deliveries (and therefore newsletters) with new puzzles to keep us going during the winter's months, and (dare I say it...?) Christmas.

Keep Safe & Happy Puzzling! Jig
