Jig's Corner

It has been a busy month sending out puzzles to you all. I think the short supply since Christmas has meant quite a few of you were running short on your stockpiles of new puzzles, so you are all starting to build up again. It is always worth buying a puzzle which you like whilst it is available, as manufacturers are still struggling to make their full ranges available and you never know when the supply of your favourites might dry up!

Happy Puzzling! Jig

Winning Ways

Issue 182 Winner - 'Release Me'

We had quite a split between Eddie Miller and Jimmy Heap on this one, but from our investigations we believe 'Release Me' was first recorded by Eddie Miller in 1949 with Jimmy Heap's version being 4 years later. Congratulations to Christine Bidwell from Surrey whose name was drawn from the successful entries. Your puzzle will be on its way shortly.

ISSUE 183 COMPETITION

Sudoku.

Replacing the usual numbers 1-9 with the letters of JIGSAWFUN.
