FJ11349 - Portloe
1000pcs - £14.00

'Portloe' is part of the Falcon Scenery theme. It shows a picturesque fishing village tucked away among the steep cliffs and valleys of the breathtaking Cornish coast. This stunning puzzle has been illustrated by the very talented freelance artist Fiona Osbaldstone, who started learning her craft at the Kent Institute of Art & Design.

FJ11350 - Waterside Cottage
1000pcs - £14.00

'Waterside Cottage' is part of the Falcon Cottages theme. The colourful image depicts an idyllic waterside cottage surrounded by lush trees and flowers in full bloom, and the family of swans and cygnets that call the calm waters their home. This nostalgic puzzle has been illustrated by the London-born artist Dominic Davison, who celebrates his 50th birthday this year!

'Open Day at the Fire Station' is part of the Falcon Transport theme. This charming puzzle shows eager children experiencing the thrills and excitement of what it's like to be a firefighter at a local fire station, as they enjoy demonstrations and daring displays surrounded by iconic red fire engines. This colourful puzzle has been illustrated by another London-born artist Steve Crisp, who began his artistic education at the St Martins School of Art.

FJ11351 - Open Day at the Fire Station
1000pcs - £14.00

R16979 - Walking World No.2 - Dovedale
1000pcs - £14.00

Individual walkers, couples and family groups enjoy their walk through this scenic landscape. The River Doe flows at the base of the limestone ravine and is surrounded by ancient ash woodland, beautiful flowers and wonderful wildlife. Our scene concentrates on the iconic stepping-stones, where a father helps his young son across the large boulders. We see other walkers clambering up the steep slopes or making their way to distant Milldale. Dovedale is one of the UK's most popular places to walk - it's easy to see why!

'Closing the Deal' is part of the Nostalgia theme. Puzzlers are transported to a used car dealership with a forecourt that's filled with iconic automobiles of the time, some sporty, some compact, but each impossibly stylish. This stunning 500-piece jigsaw puzzle has been illustrated by Yorkshire-born Kevin Walsh, who studied at the Wakefield College for Art.

Jig's Corner

Hello everyone - it's lovely to be back after 2 months where I've been kept quiet (well, almost 😊). After a wonderful Christmas celebration with my family, I fell fowl of the dreaded virus and had to spend 10 days in isolation with Covid over New Year. Fortunately I've had all the recommended jabs so I wasn't ill other than a mild cold, giving me time to complete a couple of puzzles (yes - even though I work with them during the week I do enjoy puzzles when I have some downtime). I won't tell you which ones, but you don't puzzle the image on the box ...

Stay safe and Happy Puzzling! Jig

Readers Letters

I was given a HUADADA puzzle as a Christmas gift. The image on the box was bright and colourful and the pieces were OK, but were not as thick as those on my usual puzzles so might not last long. However, I had a major issue with the glare of my room lights reflecting off the puzzle making it very difficult to see the pieces and where they'd fit. I couldn't actually complete it.

Mrs H from Huntingdon (via Telephone)

We occasionally have newer manufacturers sending puzzles in for us to try (& we are always looking for more) so it is really useful for us to receive your feedback too. We will only ever offer new puzzles which we believe are up to the standards of our existing suppliers in terms of piece and image quality and colour.

Please let us know of any new puzzle types you try - good or bad!
