The Official PUZZLE CLUB Newsletter

Lots new from all the usual excellent quality manufacturers.

Jigs Corner, 'Winning Ways' Competition & Upcoming Festivals

We'd like to give you advance notice that we are away for 2 weeks from 8th July so we won't be able to take any orders or send anything out during that time. We will try to send July's Newsletter out early so you can order quickly and we send out your puzzles before we go away. That's our plan at the moment, anyway ...!

If you order your puzzles online (or even if you order over the 'phone or by post but still have internet access) please can you leave a review on TRUSTPILOT of our puzzles and how we run things? The more people that know what dealing with us is like will (hopefully) mean us gaining more customers and being able to offer a greater range of puzzles and better offers for everyone.

There is also some bad news on the postage front I'm afraid, as Royal Mail (and our courier DPD) have increased their costs again, so there is a slight change from this month onwards. We're really sorry and we're doing everything we can to keep prices low, but all of our suppliers are increasing their prices - by over 10% in most cases - and we have to increase ours if we are to continue being able to send out our Newsletters and puzzles.

To order any of these specials and / or any of the other products featured in this issue complete the order form below and send with your remittance payable to: The Puzzle Club Ltd. For all unlisted items, please use remaining lines in price list or add a note to your order. (If you don't want to spoil your newsletter, simply put your request on paper) Please make cheques payable to: The Puzzle Club Ltd and send to The Puzzle Club Ltd - 30 Adelaide Road, Bramhall, Stockport SK7 1LT - For all unlisted items, please add a note in with your order.

FJ19489 - Disney Pixar Collection - Pixar
1000pcs - £14.00

The first puzzle in the collection sees lots of sweets and chocolates that are still around today. Remember the hard fruit gums and surprise in the 5 Fry's Centre bar? Some of these sweets haven't really changed their packaging over the years but some are quite different and almost all of them will now be smaller! See how many changes you can spot between the different puzzles.

G3441 - Sweet Memories of the 1960s
500pc, £10.50

During the swinging sixties a new era of sophistication was heralded with After Eight thin mints and then Matchmakers chocolate sticks in Orange, Mint and Coffee flavours. There was a growing appetite for Peppermint with Chocolate including the new Roundtrees Cracknel. Other brands on the sweet counter included Jelly Tots, Tooty Fruities, Toffee Crisp, Skippy, Aztec, Galaxy Counters, Treats and Marathon (which later became Snickers).

This 1,000-piece puzzle features snapshots of iconic Pixar characters from beloved movies such as Toy Story, Wall E, Up, Monsters Inc and Finding Nemo. How many characters and films can you identify? Perfect for Disney fans and great fun to complete as a family.

G3440 - Sweet Memories of the 1950s
500pc £10.50

FJ20053 - Soapbox Race by Jvh
1000pcs - £14.00

This title lends itself to a typical Jan van Haasteren puzzle, with disasters and calamities everywhere! It is the 200th unique illustration by Jan - what an incredible achievement for a wonderful artist! See how many of Jan's family and his traditional hidden items you can see in the picture ...

G3443 - Sweet Memories of the 1980s
500pc - £10.50

The 80s heralded a new high tech age so it was good to find calm comfort amongst familiar sweet brands and those penny chews. There were some pack design changes - eg Bounty bar added a coconut tree - but some stayed steady - eg Toblerone had retained the same graphics since launch in 1908. There were bigger changes afoot however, as it was in 1990 that Marathon made the dramatic name change to Snickers, and Opal Fruits became Starburst in 1998.

With the new decimal coins jangling in every purse or pocket, three pence bought a vast range of tempting goodies. However, inflation quickly pushed up prices, so by the end of the 1970s a chocolate bar was likely to be 5p or 6p. Nevertheless, popular brands were Curly Wurly, Buttersnap, Swisskit, Prize, Double Decker, Ice Breaker, Amazin' Raisin, Nutty, Rumba, Welcome, Old Jamaica, Texan, Caramel and the chunky Yorkie bar, with experimental variations like a dipped Flake, Caramac with minty fudge or fizzy Spangles.

Jig's Corner

I'm on holiday early June, so this newsletter might have been delayed in reaching you as Mark & Juliet don't want to send it out while I'm away (it's nice to feel important 😊), so I apologise if that has been the case. There were also a few days of delay last month for those ordering from the Gibsons catalogue whilst we ordered quite a few puzzles in. Hopefully all now up to date and there are no new catalogues this month so we shouldn't have the same issues!

Stay safe and Happy Puzzling! Jig

Winning Ways

Issue 194 Winner – Congratulations to Mrs Watson from Mansfield whose entry was drawn from those who knew the date of the Queen's accession to the throne of 6th Feb 1952. Your puzzle will be in its way shortly.

Issue 196 Competition

In June 1936, Gone With the Wind was first published. Who was the author??

Please send your entries by end June 2022 and remember to tell us which puzzle up to 1000 pieces you would like if you are lucky enough to win (with your telephone number so we can call in case we don't have it!).
