The Official PUZZLE CLUB Newsletter

ISSUE 206
MAY 2023

We've had a reasonable take up on the new supplier puzzles so we could do with some feedback, please, before we purchase more. Good or bad, email, telephone or post - all feedback is welcomed as it is only through your input that we can move forwards with these (& other) new suppliers to give a greater range. We'll always stick with the main manufacturers but it is always good to look at others to enhance your choice. There are a few Sale puzzles this month as we try to keep spaces on the shelves for new puzzles arriving. Please note we will be closed from Sat 3rd to Wed 7th May, but you can still order puzzles online or through the post.

To order any of these specials and / or any of the other products featured in this issue complete the order form below and send with your remittance payable to: The Puzzle Club Ltd. For all unlisted items, please use remaining lines in price list or add a note to your order. (If you don't want to spoil your newsletter, simply put your request on paper) Please make cheques payable to: The Puzzle Club Ltd and send to The Puzzle Club Ltd - 30 Adelaide Road, Bramhall, Stockport SK7 1LT - For all unlisted items, please add a note in with your order.

FEATURED ARTIST

Linda Jane Smith

Linda Jane Smith has always loved drawing and as a child she entered as many art competitions as she possible could. She eventually went on to study Graphic Design at Bournville College of Art in Birmingham. She regularly carries around a sketchpad / notebook to capture scenes and ideas for future projects.

There has always been a family cat in Linda's life and these days her tortoiseshell cat Jessie often pops into the studio for a chat before going back to sleep on her bed. I'm not sure how Jessie reacts to the dogs in Linda's work and there are as many canine images as there are feline ones!

Linda has always been fascinated by fine detail and illustrators such as Arthur Rackham and Nicola Bailey, who show exquisite detail in their work, are her favourites. Linda is a collector of curios and interesting objects and they often turn up in her illustrations. You just need to look closely at the details in her work and you will find lots of little things you may have missed at first glance.

In technical terms, Linda works with designer gouache (an opaque watercolour paint, perfect for producing vibrant images) and in a Pointillist style (making a detailed drawing first before carefully putting on dots of paint to slowly build up the colour so that it has form and texture). Her colours are usually deep and rich with faded carpets, velvet cushions and threadbare brocades regularly appearing.

Linda Jane Smith is very popular on both sides of the Atlantic and sells her illustrations around the world. We regularly see her work in Gibsons and Ravensburger puzzles and they are always favourites, with a new one today (Tom Cat's House Plants)!!

Jig's Corner

I must apologise for the mix-up with 'My Haven 10' last month, we are still waiting for delivery of it from Ravensburger, currently looking at mid-May after 2 delayed/cancelled deliveries already! There are several 'Coronation' special puzzles this month, so you have a chance to pick your favourite(s) to complete over the Coronation month and to keep as a memory of such a momentous occasion. Spring has definitely arrived and I've had a chance to take out my little kit car a few times. Working in the warehouse has helped me to get used to the cold - not so much for my friends, who are struggling with the windy experience! Hopefully the sun will shine for what should be a wonderful weekend (and afterwards so I can keep the wind blowing through what I have left of hair) 😊

Stay safe and Happy Puzzling Jig
