The Official
PUZZLE CLUB
Newsletter

Hello all dissectionists (that's most of you as this means you enjoy putting puzzles together!). The 10th British Jigsaw Championships were held recently in St Mary's Church Newmarket, using the 1000pc puzzle Ha'penny Bridge (G6350). The entrants didn't know the puzzle until the competition started, the race was from unboxing to completion - (no pre-sorting allowed) and the winning times were: Elite - Sarah Mills in 1 hour 52 mins, Pairs - SJ Bodeell and Dan Martin in 1 hour 39 mins, Fun - Emma Cobb, Sue and Richard in 2 hours 15 mins.

WOW!! Please let us know your best time for completing from start to finish, and if anyone has completed a 1000pc in less than a day.

FEATURED ARTIST

Kevin Walsh

Born in Castleford in 1950, in the heart of the industrial West Riding of Yorkshire, Kevin Walsh studied illustration at the Wakefield College of Art. Kevin developed an early reputation, initially for his aircraft paintings and is a full member of the Guild of Aviation Artists, who have honoured him with many awards.

Still based in Yorkshire, Kevin has become increasingly renowned for his nostalgic, landscape and transport in bygone times images. Accurate technical and historical detail combined with an ability to capture the warmth and atmosphere of his subjects are key parts of Kevin's work. He travels many miles and spends countless hours sketching before committing the final composition to canvas.

In his 'Leisure Days' series, created especially for Ravensburger, Kevin combines all of these elements and also demonstrates his masterful brushwork and wonderful use of vibrant colour. The latest in this series is available in this month's Newsletter 'Leisure Days No.8'. Kevin's work is licensed for use across the world, and appears on a wide range of products including oil paintings, greeting cards, collectible plates, prints and, of course, jigsaw puzzles.

Amongst people who collect his work are Jack Charlton, Tony Dorigo, and ex-Defence Minister Lord Mason

Jig's Corner

Some of you will now have 'little-ones' running aound free from school, so looking for something to do with them. Jigsaws are a great way to have them focus for a while and help get them into a great hobby early. Also brilliant when the weather takes a turn for the worse and you are forced inside! The XL piece ones are twice the size of standard puzzle pieces and XXL ones are 5 times the size. As well as the ones in this Newsletter, you just need to look on the website, searching for XL or XXL to see what we have in stock. I've some time off this month, so will be back again in September.
